He also reserves the right to reject any fractional or nominal bid which in his judgment may delay or injuriously affect the sale.

3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

4. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid on or before delivery, in default of which The Anderson Auction Company will not be responsible if the lot or lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.

But upon receiving before the date of sale expert opinion in writing that any lot is not as represented, The Anderson Auction Company will use every effort to furnish proof to the contrary, and in default of such proof the lot will be sold subject to the declaration of the aforesaid expert, he being liable to the owner or owners thereof for damage or injury occasioned by such declaration.

7. TERMS CASH. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions any sum deposited as part payment shall be forfeited, and all such lots as remain uncleared after twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, will be resold by either private or public sale at such time as The Anderson Auction Company shall determine, without further notice, and if any deficiency arises from such resale it shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale together with all the expenses incurred thereby. This condition shall be without prejudice to the right of The Anderson Auction Company to enforce the contract with the buyer, without such resale.

The Anderson Auction Company will afford every facility for the employment of carriers and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carriers and packers.

NOTE

MR. OEHME has been identified with the Art life of New York for nearly half a century. For more than thirty years he acted as American manager for the house of Goupil, afterwards M. Knoedler & Co., then for fifteen years he maintained his own galleries. During these years he was brought in contact with the entire picture buying public and has always upheld the highest standards. Now that he has retired from business, this sale will dispose of his remaining pictures. They represent modern European and American artists with a group of decorative portraits after French Masters, making a pleasing assortment from which to select works suitable for the adornment of the modern home.
